e. Continuity of education plans
f. Contingency plans for school building closure
g. Communication with the school community

2. Supports for Teachers and Continuity of Learning

The parties agree that the most effective instructional methods involve face-to-face, in-person programs. However, Hawaii’s public schools do not have enough classroom space to allow all students to receive face-to-face, in-person instruction with the necessary and proper physical distancing needed during the COVID-19 pandemic. Schools will need to implement distance and blended learning programs to ensure continuity of instructional programming for all students. The following support and facilitate distance and blended learning programs:

a. Teachers will be provided ongoing support including equipment, internet access, guidance on use of online-learning platforms, and technical support.

b. August 4, 2020 is designated as the first instructional day of school on the BOE-approved SY 2020 school calendar. Beginning the school year with physical distancing will affect all of our normal school routines. Therefore, training and planning will be prioritized for the use of the school campus.

c. The first nine (9) days of instruction will consist of:
   i. Half days with students, including meal service, to complete the following: assess academic and social-emotional learning needs, conduct reviews, introductions, and to test and adjust to school-wide and classroom protocols, ii. Half days with staff will be utilized to train, test and adjust protocols to keep learning environments productive and safe.
   i. During the first nine (9) Instructional days, teachers shall be provided no less than one (1) hour per day of teacher-initiated preparation.

d. Planning and collaboration days

Schools that have scheduled the two (2) planning and collaboration days prior to the first day of instruction for teacher-initiated planning and to engage in grade level and department level discussions regarding modification of curriculum and/or student learning loss may keep these two (2) planning and collaboration days with the understanding that full days begin on August 17, 2020.

e. Care Coordinators of students with special needs

Teachers, who are care coordinators of students with special needs will be provided, during first quarter, no less than three (3) hours per student for preparation time to facilitate assessments and lead conversations on the need for any possible compensatory services and/or extended school year services.

Scheduling considerations will be made for impact to instruction for special needs students.
f. To ensure all schools can maximize student-learning time, the Department will seek a waiver from federally mandated testing from the United States Department of Education (USDOE) for school year 2020-21.

3. Instructional Models for School Year 2020-2021

Schools will need to modify their models of instructional delivery in school year 2020-21. The Department must meet the BOE directive "to provide instructional models and clear guidance to families that allow parents or guardians who do not feel comfortable sending their children to a school campus to keep their children at home."

For purposes of determining each school’s instructional model(s) and bell schedule for school year 2020-21, the following is agreed to and supersedes Article VI – Teaching Conditions and Hours, section DD Workload (teaching schedules) #4-8. All other provisions of the CBA shall remain in effect.

Principals shall provide the faculty and staff the opportunity for a collaborative process as follows:

a. All members of Bargaining Unit 05 will be notified of the opportunity to participate in a faculty discussion regarding instructional model(s) and draft bell schedule;

   i. For purposes of determining an instructional model and draft bell schedule prior to the start of SY 2020-21 the collaborative process will take place in July and be voluntary.

   ii. For purposes of any need to modify the instructional model and draft bell schedule after the start of SY 2020-21, the collaborative process will occur during work time.

   iii. The opportunity to participate in the collaborative process will be communicated to all members of Bargaining Unit 05 with at least 48 hours' notice. The notice will include copies of the proposed model and draft bell schedule changes.

   iv. Failure of an employee to participate will not prevent the adoption of one of the models below.

b. The principal shall present an instructional model and draft bell schedule for consideration and discussion by the faculty. The model may be based on one of the models listed below or one created by the principal.
In compliance with the contract. Teachers will have the opportunity to present suggestions for improvement during the discussion. The presentation shall include information on the following:

i. Instructional model method;

ii. Master schedule and line assignments changes needed to implement the model; and,

iii. Bell schedule changes needed to implement the model (e.g. instructional periods per day, type of lunch schedule, prep time, and various miscellaneous admin time within the week);

c. The discussion will be held in a collaborative manner allowing questions to be addressed and all points of view to be heard;

d. For purposes of decision making, the principal and bargaining unit members in attendance will attempt to reach consensus on an instructional model and draft bell schedule; and

e. If consensus is not achieved, then the principal shall put the model and draft bell schedule to a vote. An Association representative shall conduct the vote. Voting will conclude two (2) hours after the end of the discussion. Individuals' votes will be kept confidential from the employer. The model and draft bell schedule shall be adopted if approved by 66 2/3% of the faculty members voting. If the vote is not approved the principal shall select a model from the instructional models listed in this section.

iii. Model C: Hybrid (Face-to-Face & Blended Rotation)

g. Boarding Schools and Multi-Grade Level Schools will select a model or combination of model(s) that best fits the needs of their school.

4. At the end of the 2020-21 school year, bell schedules and instructional model changes will conclude and revert to the schedules originally slated for implementation in school year 2020-21, before COVID-19 response. This does not preclude a school from engaging in collaborative decision making to plan for modifications to the instructional model and/or bell schedule for the 2021-22 school year.

5. Safeguards and Assurances

a. No Bargaining Unit OS positions will be eliminated because of any instructional model changes for SY 2020-21 and the response to COVID-19.

b. Teachers' privacy, health, and personnel records shall be protected in compliance with the American Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). Facial recognition and biometric identification technology will not be utilized unless employees have been informed and provided written and specific consent for use of the data.

c. Teachers' privacy will be protected while engaging remotely with students.

   iv. Teachers shall not be required to share their personal email or phone numbers to students, parents, or colleagues; and,
v. Teachers may use approved digital platforms, which hide personal phone numbers, for messaging students.

However, in order to assess the impact of COVID-19 response, the EES Joint Committee will meet and provide recommendations to the Superintendent, no later than July 28, to address any modifications to the EES for school year 2020-21.

e. At-risk Individuals

i. Teachers will be provided information regarding access to employee assistance programs (EAP);

ii. Teachers will be provided information regarding their right to request accommodations should they have underlying health conditions or risk factors identified by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as placing them at higher risk from COVID-19.

f. For the duration of COVID-19 pandemic, the following leave provision adjustments shall be followed:

i. Per the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), should a teacher need to care for a family member who is ill due to COVID-19 or in a high-risk category, they may use their paid sick leave; and, ii. Teachers may utilize Emergency Paid Sick Leave Act (EPSLA) and/or Emergency Family and Medical Leave Expansion Act (EFMLEA).

This Memorandum of Understanding may be modified or terminated by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Association and shall expire on June 30, 2021.

Model B: Blended Rotation
- All students will be on rotation.
- Priority will be given to K-2 students and vulnerable students for daily face-to-face instruction to the greatest extent possible.
- Groupings of students on a rotation will best accommodate the needs of the school community.
  - Example of groupings - A/B, A/B/C, A/B/C/D, AM/PM, alpha, geographic, other
- One group of students to be present on campus receiving face-to-face instruction while the other group(s) participates in distance learning.

Model C: Hybrid (Face-to-Face & Blended Rotation)
- Lower Elementary and Vulnerable Students: Face-to-face instruction daily (full-time)
- Upper Elementary: Blended Rotation

Priority must be given to PreK-2 students for face-to-face instruction. Given their maturity level and limited literacy and social skills, these students are the least equipped to learn independently. Additional grades should be added as space and social distancing allow. Schools should limit the mixing of students during the school day.
