WORKSHOP SESSION II: 11 - 11:45 a.m.

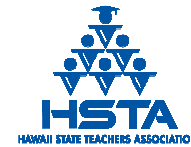

Title & Description	Presenter	Location
Kamehameha Schools' Virtual Field Trip Kamehameha Schools and Arizona State University partnered together to create a series of virtual huaka'i (field trips) integrating STEM, culture, and 'āina-based learning. Kahalu'u Ma Kai in Kona is the first site in the series. To further enhance the experience, a blended Breakout EDU activity was created to engage the students in critical thinking. Students combined their virtual huaka'i knowledge with their classroom studies to solve a set of STEM/ 'āina-based puzzles to "break into" the locked boxes and retrieve their reward. Join in on an interactive and engaging session to explore, connect, and gain a new perspective on 21st-century learning.	Malani DeAguiar	E102
VALIC Retirement and financial planning and service and solutions.	Sonnie Koko	E103
Deferred Compensation Plans Learn about deferred compensation plans.	Paul Kalili	E104
PFS Shareholders aka Primerica Learn about financial service options.	Jeanie Emeliano-Barajas	F203
